

Kia ora koutou,

The end of another term is nearly here and this one has once again been packed to the brim with a variety of learning experiences for our children. The highlight will most certainly be the school-wide production, scheduled for the 18-19 September. If you haven't already got tickets, get in fast so you don't miss out. An opportunity to see all the children expressing their creative talents together on the stage is something not to be missed.

While on the topic of expressing creative talent, the board would like to thank all the school community for their support of Stars in Clive's Eyes. This was once again another extremely successful event and a lot of fun for performers and audience. Special mention to Susan Davidson and Belinda Clibborn. These two special women, led a big team of hardworking people over several months to make 'Stars' the amazing show that it was.

Before and After School Care at Clive School

As you will be aware from our recent communication with the community AFCARE will sit within the Clive School Board of Trustees's Governance portfolio from the end of term 3.

Over the last month or so the school board has been actively working to complete all the operational requirements so as to ensure that there is a smooth transition from the current operation to the new operation. Part of that work has been establishing policy and process and making staff appointments. The board is pleased to advise that they received a number of strong applications for AFCARE and have now made four excellent appointments.

The AFCARE staff are Kendyl Findlay, Charisma Kireka, Sarah Maher and Hannah Oldershaw. These staff are currently undertaking training and will begin in their roles for the AFCARE School holiday programme in October. All the AFCARE administration will be run through the school office and overseen by the principal and school board.

The Board of Trustees are excited by the new before and after school care and are looking forward to providing a service that supports families, and ensures the children who attend are happy and well cared for.

More specific details about the October school holiday programme and before and after school care from term 4 will be communicated to families over the next couple of weeks.

Board of Trustees

The current Clive School Board of Trustees is Kirsty Jones (Chairperson – 0272077730), Isy Bradbury, Simon Richardson, Amy Thomas, John Willoughby and Edward Whyte. The staff representative is Rob Bryant and the principal, Brian Eales also sits on the board. Maree Ringrose holds the secretary positions.

The trustees value the opportunity that they have to serve and represent the school community, and therefore encourage you to make contact with them should you have the need.

The Board of Trustees send regular newsletters to the community. You can access past Board of Trustee newsletters by scrolling down on the 'News' tab of the school website. A list of the trustees can also be found under the 'Community' tab.

Thank you to the school staff for all the extra work you did to put on a school production. You are all wonderful people and totally committed to the children at Clive School. Thank you also to our families for your ongoing school support and positivity. Enjoy the upcoming school holiday break everyone. The warmer weather is on the way and along with it the chance to enjoy getting outdoors more.
